Prologue

In the pages that follow, we unfold "A Drama in 25 Years." Our theme, which is the Silver Anniversary of Woodrow Wilson High School, is combined with the excitement and color of the theater in order to present the high-lights of the past quarter century in addition to a vivid picture of the past year. Our thanks and appreciation are given to those who may have helped us in presenting this book to you. Acknowledgment is given and appreciation expressed to the staff of the Belmont College Tower for use of certain art materials from their 1946 yearbook.

It should go without saying that while publishing pictures and facts about prominent Woodrowites we have been forced, for lack of space and information, to omit reference to many others who have been equally outstanding in their achievements.

THE STAFF

Best wishes to one of the sweetest girls I know.
It's really been fun in 209 and I hope you always have the best
Love Jameson

*Hail, Alma Mater,
Hats off to you!
Ever you'll find us
Loyal and true.*

*Firm and undaunted
Ever we'll be,
Hail to the school we love,
Here's a toast to thee!*

We Proudly Dedicate this Book

to the Spirit of "Woodrow"

TO US, "WOODROW" MEANS...

The beautiful emcees and "ham acting"
of our Senior Assembly

The last dance of our Senior Dance

Beginning each day with the scripture reading

The thrill of thrills on receiving the long-sought sheepskin

The fun fellowship and food of the special 'spreads' in the lunchroom

The bewildered and yet awed sophomore

The bi-weekly reading of the Woodrow Wilson News

The spine tingling cheers, and

The snappy step and the martial music of the Wednesday morning parade

The sober end of that all important pep rally

Taking our bow in the auditorium

Time has improved the surroundings of Woodrow Wilson High School, but the structure itself remains essentially the same. The 1928 (or earlier) model car on muddy Glasgow Drive has given way to high-powered convertibles, sedans, and trucks on a floor like pavement. The infant shrubs shown on the campus are now in full maturity. Additional buildings dot the once vacant lots.

The clipping of the story of the "Housewarming" of Woodrow Wilson was published in the September 15, 1928, issue of the Dallas Morning News and is reproduced from a microfilm of that issue.

Boards Officers, Installed, Are Put In Separate Staff

The annual homecoming assembly at Woodrow Wilson High School was held last night in the gymnasium. The assembly was a grand affair, with a large number of students and faculty members in attendance. The principal, Mr. [Name], presided over the ceremony, which included the installation of the new boards of officers. The new officers were put in separate staffs, and the assembly was a great success.

Down through the years teachers in the city of Dallas have considered it a privilege to teach at Woodrow Wilson. And also throughout the years the instructors at Woodrow have distinguished themselves in other ways besides doing their jobs to the very best of their ability.

Many of the teachers have wide and varied interests and some have become quite prominent. Rush Caldwell, a history teacher for some years, was elected President of the Texas State Teachers' Association. Fred Erney, who taught Woodrow students science before 1930, wrote the book Write a Conclusion, a general science text. Miss Myrtle Roberts, who is teaching history in Room 111 at the present time, is also the author of a textbook Pattern for Freedom printed this year for high school American history students.

WESTERN AUSTRALIAN BIRTH RECORDS

Success and renown have come to not-a-few graduates of Woodrow Wilson High School. Though it is agreed that success is not measured by how prominent a person is in the world, the names of prominent people are familiar to the Woodrow Wilson Family — names like Wallace Savage, ex-mayor of Dallas; Ralph Baker, President Dallas Bar Association; Lawrence Marcus, of Neiman-Marcus; and Ed Bearden, costume designer. In the pictures reproduced are (left) Ed Bearden, Lawrence Marcus, Dr. Max Cole, Prominent Dallas Physician (Below) John Rosenfield, Jr., artist; Carr Collins, Jr., insurance executive; and Wallace Savage.

CLASS OF JUNE, 1953

UNDERCLASS MEN

"High school at last" is the thing that's on the minds of most 2 B's when they enter Woodrow. When the 2 B's become 2 A's they are the most energetic, and the most lively people you'll find in the student body. When the sophomore becomes a junior, a new phase of his school life is introduced to him. He now has more confidence in himself and he's an all-round good guy. Everybody likes him, the sophomores envy him, and the seniors respect him. He's in!

Band Roster

The "pride and joy" of Woodrow Wilson students is their band. Hailed as the "best in the land" by the students themselves, the band, whose membership reached over 100 members this year, is undoubtedly one of the best in the State of Texas. A real credit to one of the best schools in the State of Texas.

Welcome on any occasion the Woodrow Wilson Orchestra led by Mrs. Evelyn Robbins performs to such a degree of perfection that it is considered of professional caliber. This year the orchestra had eleven members to go to Galveston, Texas, for the All State Orchestra. Well represented in All City Orchestra, the members make a number of trips outside of Dallas each year.

THE PLAYERS OF THE 1911-12 TEAM

All through the years Woodrow Wilson has rated with the best in athletics. With spirit and teamwork they have remained unexcelled. Many former Woodrowites have gone on to greater victories after graduating. I. B. Hale, Wildcat blocker in 1934, David O'Brien, captain of the football squad in 1935, Mal Kutner, Leonard Akin, Red Moley and Bill Forester are former Wildcats who became All-Americans. In 1938 the Woodrow Wilson Basketball Squad under the expert direction of Coach Howard Kitchen bounced all the way to victory by winning city, district, regional, and state championships. The years '37 and '38 were great ones in Woodrow's sports history. The Track team won the regional meet, and the Wildcats rocketed down the field to be city champions in football. Track teams have added to Woodrow Wilson's honors by capturing state championships in 1931 and 1937. Another state championship was won in 1948 by a Wildcat swimming team. During the current year a Woodrow Wilson Junior, Barbara Galieher, won second National Women's A.A.U. tumbling championship.

On All-District Team

AT THE REACH of a Tech tackler is Gene Ward (19), Wildcat back, as he gains yardage in the Woodrow-Tech game. Johnny Williams (66) and Ronnie Mason (77) are the other Wildcats pictured. Woodrow defeated Tech 14-0.

Gridlers Match Weight, Speed, and Teamwork With Opponents

IT'S UP AND OVER the center of the Forest line as Wildcat sophomore, Tommy Hall 231, goes for a touch down. Making the block for Hall is Hal Stockton (11). Woodrow won the game, 20-14.

GETTING NOWHERE FAST Adamson's Ray McGregor is being held back by Woodrow Wilson's Gene Ward 19. Adamson won in the last minute, 14-13.

FINAL LUNGE is made by Woodrow's Doyle Canine (5) in an attempt to stop Billy Kidd, Sunset fleet halfback, as he skirts left and barely out of reach. Sunset went ahead to win the Thanksgiving Day game, 6-0.

SNOWBALL, the mascot which adapted the Wildcat football team during pre season practice is now a familiar figure in the halls and on the campus of Woodrow.

Experience Is Wildkittens' Main Objective

B" team instructors are Bill Leavell and Pat Jamison

Woodrow's "B" football team with four wins and six losses, a record which built the experience that the team gained. Experience which will be most important to these sophomores as they become "A" football team next fall.

Making an outline of yells and songs to be used at a pep rally are Joe, Bobbie, Sharon, Betty, Tommy, Betty, and Buddy with the assistance of Miss Panko's cheerleader sponsor.

Leading the student body in a favorite yell, the Whisper, the seven cheerleaders begin with that familiar "Come on, go! Let's yell!"

No Harder Workers or More Loyal Fans

W W -l -d, C-C-a-t-s, the ringing words of a football cheer, the flash of red and grey, seven energetic people posed like statues. The Wilacat Cheerleaders! Those seven guys and gals who are the 1952 cheerleaders hardly resemble the first ones in 1934. This was the first year the young Woodrow Wilson High School elected cheerleaders to lead the student body. Nineteen years later the Triple "W" led by these school favorite cheer our football team to victory in the 1952 football season.

Cagers bow; but look to future

Speed! That's one of the most important requirements in basketball, and the speedy Wildcats have gone one better than the football team by capturing four city, three district, and one state title. These cups stand in our trophy case to remind us of the past great teams and to encourage the future ones.

Near misses and heart breakers have been the results of too many seasons; but last year the Wildcat nine tied for the city title for the first time. Although many a time they have run a close second. A challenge to the future diamond enthusiasts is to bring in more baseball championship cups to add to the other trophies.

"B" Club Trains Rookies

Cooched by Bobby Griffin these sophomores are training themselves for the "A" team. A person would be surprised to see the co-ordination and smooth performance of these "B" learners. When they see the finished product on the "A" team, they soon understand why the Wildcats are no strangers in the upper brackets of the city race.

The small team in number but who do a big job on the golf links is the gold team. This team consistently won the title for four years in a row, 1939-1942, and two other times 1933 and 1952. "Here's hopin' that the golf team can run up another monopoly on the golf cup by winning again the next four or five years.

Baggy gym suits utter exhaustion after a basketball game, the daily fight for the mirror—all of these things are typical of the girl gym classes. In spite of these difficulties most girls enjoy this chance to get wholesome exercise and to learn teamwork and co-operation with fellow team members.

WITNESS TO THE

The Woodrow Wilson Military Department has long boasted the largest preparatory-school ROTC in the world. Its achievements through the years have proved commensurate with its excellence in size. Hundreds of young men graduates have used their military training received here to achieve rapid promotions and honors in the armed services. Woodrow Wilson is proud of its sons who have served in recent conflicts and has honored some 123 youths named on the Honor Roll at left who gave "the fullest measure of devotion."

Pictured below are three popular army men who have served the school corps in the past. Colonel William Webb Browning (left) is now in command of a unit in Hawaii, Colonel P. L. Hooper (center) is operational officer at the Atomic Proving Ground in Los Alamos, New Mexico, and Sergeant William Forster, a favorite of all the cadets who served under him, who is now deceased.

MAJOR R. M. NEHER
Commandant of Cadets

MAJOR R. M. NEHER, who has been commandant at Woodrow Wilson for thirteen years, first came here in 1928 as a mathematics teacher. A veteran of World War I, Major Neher received his education at Manchester College of Indiana, the University of Indiana, East Texas State Teachers' College, and the University of Texas.

FIRST LIEUTENANT JOSEPH A. FRANKS came to Woodrow two and one-half years ago, having been with the occupation troops in the Philippine Islands and Japan. Altogether Lt. Franks has served five years with the United States Army. He is assistant professor of military science and tactics.

MASTER SERGEANT MELVIN W. CLARK, supply sergeant and instructor in theory, has been here seven years. During World War II, Sergeant Clark served in Europe, Africa, and Sicily.

SERGEANT FIRST CLASS EDDIE E. PICKETT, has served in the army sixteen years. During World War II, he saw service in such places as the South Pacific, occupation in Germany for three years, and fourteen months in Korea. For two years Sergeant Pickett has been drill leader and instructor in theory at Woodrow.

SERGEANT FIRST CLASS EUGENE V. KIRK came to Woodrow in March, 1952, as rifle team and theory instructor. He has been in the army sixteen years, in which he saw time in the South Pacific during World War II and nineteen months in Korea.

Outstanding

Lt. Col. B. Bowers

Lt. Col. Herbert Kregel

A coveted honor among the officers in the military department is to be chosen Lieutenant Colonel and Colonel. Only the most outstanding leaders achieve this status. These young men have been chosen for the most responsible position — Regimental Commander, Regimental Adjutant, and Battalion Commanders

Woodrow Wilson Rangers Perform For Varied Spectator Groups

The trim, neat cadets that you see wearing white fourragres on their shoulders are the Woodrow Wilson Rangers. The Rangers are a voluntary group that perform on special occasions, such as the Thanksgiving Day football game, open house, and other functions. This highly trained group is led by Drill Master, Col. Gene Jameson. Other officers of the Rangers include Lt. Col. Irving Berlin, Guide; Captain Doug Woodham, Platoon Leader; 1st Lt. Ronald Griffin, and 2nd Lt. James Ketchersid.

The Woodrow Wilson Rangers kneel in a Queen Anne salute.

Rifle Team Wins Competition

Sharp-eyed cadets lined up with rifles to their shoulders, are the crack-shot members of Woodrow's rifle team, who took the trophy this year in the City shoulder-to-shoulder competition. Sergeant First Class Eugent V. Kirk trains these boys for competition in six matches: during the fall are the Interscholastic Match, the City Match, and the Hearst Match; the spring matches include the Shoulder to Shoulder Match, the Tri-City Match (Dallas, Arlington, and Fort Worth), and the Arlington Match.

Organizations and clubs have come and gone from Woodrow Wilson in the past twenty five years— organizations such as the Latin Club and Le Cercle Francois. Three clubs that have flourished through the quarter century are the Girl Reserves, the Hi Y, and the Little Theater. Students of Spanish have had a club every year since 1928, though not under the same name. The Girl Reserves, whose name was changed to Y Teens in 1947, is the only club that has been active every year since it was first organized in 1928. Another organization, which came and has since gone, was the 'Crusaders,' a girls' drum, bugle, and fife corps. It was organized in 1935 and disbanded after 1937.

Student Librarians Know What and Where

Always friendly and ready to help, the SENIOR LIBRARY COUNCIL goes into action every period, every day of the week. The members of this honorary organization are recommended by their teachers on the basis of their scholastic record, leadership, and aptitude. These seniors who aid in maintaining a quiet atmosphere endeavor to help students enjoy their library and become more familiar with the many interesting and educational forms of reading material.

Y-Teens Develop

The Y-TEENS were organized under the name of "Girl Reserves" in 1929, and 25 years later it is still the most popular club among the girls of Woodrow Wilson. Members profit by talks on personality and personal appearance, given by guest speakers and they enjoy planning and carrying out social events.

Permanent Record in Words and Pictures

The reward of a thing well done is to have done it." So wrote the editor of the first CRUSADER, Wallace Savage, later to become Mayor of Dallas. John Bowland was associate editor and there were fifteen other boys and girls on the staff.

The 1929 Crusader was dedicated to the ideals of President Woodrow Wilson, and contained a reprint of a letter from his widow, Mrs. Edith Bolling Wilson.

The 150-page book contained a humor section and quips about different seniors which is not included in the Senior Publication. The present staff is composed of twelve senior girls who are chosen by Mr. Allen on the recommendations of the faculty.

Filing club cards is one of the duties performed by MARGIE SHARBER, co-editor and activities editor.

"The Chlorophyll Cat" was followed by the appropriately named Senior Publication, "The Fifty Kitty." Members of the staff feel that "The Fifty Kitty" — actually "pub" number 50 — is the "bestest" yet

THE GRAND FINALE

Favorites, not only at Woodrow but to the rest of the world, are such people as Barbara Gentry, known to us "Alice of Dallas" winner for 1952; Cynthia Barnes, written up in a 1949 Ladies Home Journal feature "Profile of Youth" in a portrait of life at Woodrow Wilson; Georgia Carroll, famous Powers Model and movie starlet, who later married Kay Kyser; Annelle Hayes, actress-wife of actor Mark Stevens, and Bob Stanford Dallas television star. Woodrowites of the years 1946-1948 remember Norma Bogan as the girl who was photographed with most of the famous cinema stars. She is pictured below with actors, Van Johnson, and Ronald Reagan. These persons and more ex-students who have achieved success in the more glamorous careers as actors, actresses, TV performers, and singers are all remembered by the students and the faculty in the pictures shown besides Miss Bogan and her famous subjects are left: Annelle Hayes, Bob Stanford, Cynthia Barnes, (right), Georgia Carroll, and Barbara Gentry.

Snowball

The fierce-looking brown and white dog who has become a familiar sight to the halls of Woodson, is our town's wildest mascot, Snowball. Snowball, a stray, was adopted first by the football boys and then by the students. A constant companion of the team, Snowball prefers the company of the boys, but at lunch time he always comes to the girls for "hand-outs."

Snowball has stolen the show many times, like the time a football game was delayed so that Snowball could cross the field. Who knows, maybe Snowball was a jinx like a black cat across the path of the Bulldogs, who were tripped up by the silver and flame golden.

Football

Cheerleaders Bobby Schroeder and Betty Green are surrounded by happy Wildcats after a triple W victory.

"Down with the Bulldogs!" was the battle-cry at the pep assembly before the North Dallas football game. Esther Crawford reads a consoling note to a "Bulldog" while Wilson cheerleaders sympathize with the be-splinted North Dallas mascot.

Football queens Betty Green, Sharon Alexander, Gayle Scott, Nancy Boyd, Carl Ann Graham and Mary East pose on the football field for the student body.

Time

One of the few quiet moments at a pep rally is when cheerleader Tommy Dance announces the next cheer.

One of the few daylight games finds the Wilson Cheerleaders "whooping it up" as usual.

Enthusiastic Wildcats join in cheers at the favorite of the "take-you-away-from-your-class" activities.

Never Forgotten Wildcat Dances

The "Stars and Stripes" overlook the dancing couples at the Officers' Dance.

The "Stars and Stripes" overlook the Guys and gals in striking uniforms and floating gowns parade across the floor at the Officers' Dance Grand March.

"Kiddies" Delores Hargrove and date, Janie Hansen, and Terry Perkins are caught in a lull at the "Kiddie Dance."

The "Kiddie Dance" patrons find the merry-go-round top entertainment.

These "hicks" posing for the camera make one wonder from under what rock they came; but on closer inspection, they are recognized as Mike Connell, Carolyn Owens, Johnny Delaporte, Pat Preston, Terry Irby, Harlan Wright, and Sylvia Males at the "Sadie Hawkins" Dance.

Janet O'Neil, J. W. Bowen, Sharon Alexander and Curley Johnson enjoy the bunny-hop at the "Sadie Hawkins" Dance.

"Winter Wonderland" theme finds dancing couples in rhythm with the music of the Senior Dance.

Happy Seniors march across the floor in the Grand March in conclusion to a never-to-be-forgotten night.

A faded, sepia-toned photograph of a group of people, possibly a family, standing outdoors. The image is tilted and has a dark, irregular border. The photograph is mounted on a light-colored, textured surface. The people in the photo are difficult to discern due to the fading, but they appear to be standing in a row. The photograph is tilted clockwise at approximately 15 degrees.

A composite image. The left side shows a person in a white protective suit and mask, possibly a healthcare worker or researcher, standing in a field. The right side shows a group of people, including children, in a field, possibly a community or a school.

"Quiz 'Em on the Air" at Woodrow finds Robert Ashmore scoring points against opponents, the Sunset High School students, whom the Wildcats defeated.

Open House

During American Education Week

Examining floor plans at the Open House are Richard Rogers and Tommy Dance, while Master Buford Cates is amused by some witticism from Shirley Luton.

Mothers all dressed up serve the parents of students in the lunch room.

Miss Humphries shows Ann Austin and Mary Oliphant some of her "do-dads", made by her English students.

Gathered around the information desk, the mothers and fathers pause to chat and visit.

Time was in grade school when every boy and girl looked forward to recess. This page out of the book of child-hood memories was revived this year by Principal "Pop" Ashburn. The students took to the recess like ducks take to water. The pictures on these pages are unidentified, who knows, maybe you're in them.

Once Upon

CHAPTER I: Once upon a time in room 209 there was being held a contest between the loyal subjects of King Bush I, in which the winners were rewarded with Senior Play parts. (Earl Carter and Joan Blair do their bit in the contest)

CHAPTER II: The winners of the contest were so happy they immediately sent messages home by white doves to tell the good news. (Jo Ann Griffin, Mary Emily Ferguson, Betty Bell, Esther Crawford, Earl Carter, Marietta Pratt, phone home.)

CHAPTER III: All the attendants in the palace received a ribbon showing their authority from the prime minister to participate in the day's festivities. (Seniors receive their "Senior" banners from class president, Timothy Dorough.)

CHAPTER IV: The court literature was sold, and all enjoyed themselves on the festive day. (Buford Cates sells "The Chlorophyll Cat" to students.)

a Senior Day

CHAPTER IX: The winners of the play contest prepared themselves for the great drama, "Pride and Prejudice," which ended the day of festival. The court members then retired and left behind them many happy days for all the future courtiers. (H. Bush Morgan adds silver to the hair of Bill Bowers before the Senior Play while the rest of the cast watches.)

CHAPTER VIII: The most scholarly of the court received high honors from the ultimate authorities. (Seniors Carroll Morris and Betty Jean Hunter learn that they have highest grades from Counselor Bonnie Wilkins and Principal G. L. Ashburn.)

CHAPTER VI: The jesters were at their funniest; the whole crowd cheered them. (Wrestler, Bobbie Schroeder, downs Betty Green, while Carol Guthrie intervenes.)

CHAPTER VII: After the entertainment came the feasting, where everyone ate his fill and enjoyed himself.

CHAPTER V: The court jesters prepared themselves for the big occasion, the Senior Assembly. (Nearest the camera are Esther Crawford, Robert McGlashen, Earl Carter, Henry Stover and Leon Withers.)

Pogo

"I go Pogo!" was the battlecry that rang through the halls at Woodrow Wilson during the presidential campaign last September. Walt Kelly, creator and campaign manager of Pogo, the students favorite candidate, expressed his appreciation by presenting 500 "Pogo buttons" to the Wildcats and introducing Pogo to the Silver Crusader, as shown in picture

Co-editor, Wacil McKnight, finds Pogo an obliging person when he has nice words for the Silver Crusader. Pogo creator Walt Kelly looks on

BEST OF LUCK FROM POGO
AND WALT KELLY

1. Miss Merle Fincher shows off her students art work to School Week visitors.

2. "Corporals advance!" Routine roll call is taken in a girls' gym class.

3. Y-Teen officers are installed on assembly.

4. Pom-poms wave as Wildkitties yell madly at the last pep rally.

5. Pat Green and Emilyne Weed orate on the finer points of journalism.

6. Orchids — not term themes — are the topic of this discussion between Miss Flora Lowrey, Mrs. Mozelle Hays, and students on Senior Day.

7. "What price glory?" ask Terry Perkins, Walter Hays, and Richard (Bones) Rogers.

8. Thrilled favorite nominees grin disbelievingly at the call slips that brought the 'great news'.

9. Miss Edith Cooper watches Dixie Orem check out her 'instruments of torture' at the Ice Arena.

10. 'Posed' picture of Wildcats 'studying' in the study hall

Clubs

Projectionists and Mr. and Mrs. J. William Brown take an 'intermission' to eat cookies and drink cokes at their Christmas Party

The Library Council takes time out from dusting the books to pose for a family portrait at Christmas time.

at Work

No, not the chorus, just the Dallas Historical Society singing "The Eyes of Texas."

Janie Hanson and Joyce Benthul prepare posters for the Sadie Hawkins Dance while other art students finish their six-weeks assignments.
